Doane Robinson Collection (H74-009)

Alphabetical Topic Correspondence, 1889-1946

Box 03359 B - “A” to “Am”

Folder 31: “A” Correspondence, 1921-1924

Folder 32: Dr. G. S. Adams

> Correspondence, 1913-1920, between Robinson and members of the G. S. Adams family of Yankton. Topics include the illness of Dr. L. C. Meade, John J. Cohan, Cuthbert Ducharme, and Gina Smith Campbell.

Folder 33: American Book Company

> Correspondence, 1904-1914, concerning the publication of Robinson’s Brief History of South Dakota.

Box 03360 A - “Ar” to “Cap”

Folder 34: Archeology

> Correspondence, maps, drawings, notes, and other papers from 1906 to 1934 concerning Snake Butte, Arikara town sites, various petroglyphs and boulder mosaics, and other sites.

Folder 35: Ben Connor Arnold

> Correspondence, 1912-1922, between Robinson and Arnold concerning Arnold’s experiences on the Dakota frontier.

Folder 36: “B” Correspondence, 1921-1924

Folder 37: Banking

> Correspondence, 1904, between Robinson and various persons regarding the history of banking in South Dakota.

Folder 38: John Banvard

> Correspondence with Edith Banvard and others, 1936, concerning the artist, John Banvard. Also includes two copies of Robinson’s article on Banvard, published in South Dakota Historical Collections Vol. XXI.

Folder 39: William Henry Harrison Beadle

Correspondence, 1901-1905, between Robinson and Beadle concerning various topics, including education, plus eulogies of Beadle collected by Robinson in 1909.

Folder 39A: Beaver Creek, Wisconsin

Folder 40: Viola B. Bentley

Five letters, 1904, from Mrs. Bentley concerning her father, Arthur C. Van Metre, and her great-grandfather, Robert Dickson.

Folder 41: Black Hills

Correspondence, 1902-1936, with various persons regarding the early history of the Black Hills, including settlement, discovery of gold, history of Deadwood, and highway construction.

Folder 42: Curtis A. Borst

Correspondence, 1914, with various people concerning the murder of Curtis A. Borst at Frozen Man's Creek west of Fort Pierre in November 1877.

Folder 43: Edward A. Bromley

Correspondence, 1919-1920, concerning the purchase of the Illingworth negatives from the 1874 Custer Black Hills Expedition.

Folder 44: Samuel J. Brown

Correspondence, 1902-1923, plus clippings and miscellaneous papers relating to Brown, his father Joseph R. Brown, and Sioux history. Important topics are Gabriel Renville, Red Thunder, the Santee Uprising of 1862, Martin Charger, the Sisseton Sioux, and Joseph R. Brown's steam wagon.

Folder 45: Charles Henry Burke

Correspondence, 1903-1922, on various topics.

Folder 46: Frank M. Byrne

Correspondence, 1901, 1910, and 1912, on various topics.

Folder 47: "Cam" to "Can" Correspondence, 1903-1924

Folder 48: Gina Smith Campbell

Correspondence, 1915-1918, on various topics

Folder 49: Capitol Artwork - E. H. Blashfield

Correspondence, 1908-1910, between Robinson and Edwin Howland Blashfield concerning the proposed mural for the new South Dakota State Capitol.

Folder 50: Capitol Artwork

Correspondence, 1908-1910, between Robinson and Daniel Chester French, Elmer E. Garnsey, Charles Holloway, Albert H. Krehbiel, and Edward Simmons concerning the proposed artwork for the new South Dakota State Capitol.

Folder 51: Capitol Artwork

Correspondence, 1908, with several South Dakota state officials concerning artwork in the new South Dakota State Capitol.

Folder 52: Capitol Artwork - Statuary

Correspondence, 1908-1915, between Robinson and Gilbert Riswold, George Schlosser, Carrie Hanna Allbee, and others concerning the statue of General W. H. H. Beadle and the memorial tablet to Mother (Elizabeth Hazelton) Sherrard.

Box 03360 B - “Car” to “Cr”

Folder 53: “Car” to “Cas” Correspondence, 1901-1922

Folder 54: “Cell” to “Cu” Correspondence, 1922-1923

Folder 55: Census, 1906-1909

Correspondence, 1906-1909, concerning procedures in the taking of the state census.

Folder 56: Census, 1915

Correspondence and county statistics, 1915.

Folder 57: Century Magazine

Correspondence, 1889-1906, concerning materials that Robinson attempted to get published.

Folder 58: Martin Charger

Correspondence and other papers, 1915-1946, concerning Charger’s life, especially in relation to the Fool Soldier Band and the rescue of the Lake Shetak captives. The correspondence is between Robinson and Samuel Charger, son of Martin Charger.

Folder 59: Cities and Towns

Correspondence, 1909, concerning the property values in South Dakota cities, including Yankton, Lead, Deadwood, Watertown, Aberdeen, Sioux Falls, Brookings, Rapid City, Mitchell, Huron, and others.

Folder 60: Collections Vol. XXII (1946)

Correspondence in preparation for the publication of South Dakota Historical Collections Vol. XXII. Most of the letters concern a South Dakota "Honor Roll" and "Educated Sioux Indians."

Folder 61: Mary C. Collins

Correspondence, 1907-1920, concerning her work among the Sioux Indians. Sitting Bull is the subject of several letters.

Folder 62: Congregational Church, 1915-1921

Correspondence, news bulletins, and other papers concerning the First Congregational Church of Pierre, and the Congregational Conference of South Dakota.

Folder 63: Congregational Church, 1922-1924

Correspondence, news bulletins, and other papers concerning the First Congregational Church of Pierre, and the Congregational Conference of South Dakota.

Folder 64: Congregational Church, Jubilee Campaign

Correspondence and other papers, 1919-1922, concerning the 50th anniversary of the Congregational Church of South Dakota.

Folder 65: C. H. Craig

Three letters to Craig in 1925, and an historical sketch of early Sioux Falls newspapers.

Box 03361 A - "D" to "I"

Folder 66: "D" Correspondence, 1915-1922

The bulk of this folder contains correspondence with staff members of the Dakota Farmer.

Folder 67: Dakota Republican

Correspondence, 1903, with Franklin Taylor, Mahlon Gore, and others concerning the early years of the Dakota Republican, a Vermillion newspaper.

Folder 68: Charles Edmund Deland

Correspondence, 1902, mainly concerning an article for the South Dakota Historical Collections.

Folder 69: Dodd, Mead and Company

Correspondence, 1915, concerning the New International Encyclopedia.

Folder 70: Pierre Dorion

Correspondence, 1922-1925, concerning the Dorion family. Pierre Dorion was a guide for Lewis and Clark in 1804.

Folder 71: Captain William Driver

Correspondence, 1923, with Elizabeth R. Moore, daughter of Captain Driver. Driver first named the American flag "Old Glory." Several papers of a later date are also included.

Folder 72: Encyclopedia of South Dakota

Correspondence, 1925, concerning Robinson's newly published reference work. Most of the letters are congratulatory.

Folder 73: Fairbanks, South Dakota

Correspondence and miscellaneous papers concerning the origin and early history of Fairbanks, which was first known as Ash Point.

Folder 74: Captain John Feilner

Correspondence and miscellaneous papers concerning Captain John Feilner, who was killed by Indians on the Little Cheyenne River, June 28, 1864.

Folder 75: Fiftieth Anniversary of Statehood

Correspondence, 1938-1939, and miscellaneous papers relating to special activities of the Historical Society in recognition of the anniversary.

Folder 76: Football

Correspondence, 1905, from various authorities in regard to the attempt by the state legislature to govern college football.

Folder 77: Forts

Correspondence and other papers, 1903-1945, concerning Fort James, Fort Pierre, Fort Sully, Fort Dakota, Fort Randall, and Fort Sisseton (Wadsworth).

Folder 78: John Fredricks

Correspondence, 1923, in which Fredricks complains of the popular distortion of the state's true history.

Folder 79: Robert Jackson Gamble

Correspondence, 1908-1920, concerning the Red Cross in South Dakota, Missouri River development, Robert E. McDowell, and other topics.

Folder 80: Harry L. Gandy

Correspondence, 1910 and 1916-1922, mainly concerning a proposed government hydroelectric plant for the production of nitrate fertilizer.

Folder 81: Hamlin Garland

Correspondence, 1891-1916, mainly discussing Robinson's poetry. Also discussed are the farmer's way of life, and the single tax theory.

Folder 82: Father Jean Baptiste Maria Genin

Correspondence and clippings, 1904, concerning Father Genin. The letters are from Linda W. Slaughter and John Stanley. Mrs. Slaughter also writes of Sitting Bull.

Folder 83: Geographic Center

Correspondence and other papers, 1923 and 1930-1932, concerning the geographic center of South Dakota and of the North American continent.

Folder 84: Samuel Gompers

Two letters and two labor pamphlets, 1920, concerning organized labor and the state of the country.

Folder 85: George Bird Grinnell

Correspondence, 1914-1927, concerning Sacagawea, the first discovery of gold in the Black Hills, the journal of the La Verendryes, and other topics.

Folder 86: Alta Hahn

Correspondence, 1912, concerning the possible publication of Dr. Walter Louis Hahn's article, "An Annotated List of Birds Observed near Springfield, South Dakota."

Folder 87: F. W. Hamilton

Ten letters, 1888-1889, to F. W. Hamilton, Harrison and Morton Club, Deadwood, South Dakota. The letters, which concern the recent Republican victory in the national election, are from U.S. Congressmen Davenport of New York, Reed of Maine, Henderson of Iowa, Lodge of Massachusetts, and Holmes of New York; U.S. Senators Chandler of New Hampshire, Dolph of Oregon, and Paddock of Nebraska; and Governor Waterman of California, among others.

Folder 88: William Hobart Hare

Correspondence and other papers, 1903-1922, concerning Bishop Hare. Included are two letters from Hare to Robinson.

Folder 89: Grace Raymond Hebard

Correspondence, 1914-1933, concerning Sacagawea, the La Verendryes, Calamity Jane, and other topics.

Folder 90: Anson and J. D. Hilger

Correspondence (in 1905 with J. D. and in 1914 with Anson) concerning the property they once owned in Pierre, and their early experiences in the city.

Folder 91: “I” Correspondence, 1904-1921

Folder 92: Indian Courts

Letters and other papers, 1908, concerning the Indian courts on the various reservations in South Dakota.

Folder 93: Institutions

Correspondence, 1909, concerning various South Dakota state boards and institutions.

Folder 94: E. C. Issenhuth

Correspondence, 1903 and 1912-1922, with the chairman of the state highway commission.

Box 03361 B - “Ja” to “La”

Folder 95: “Ja” to “Ji” Correspondence, 1909-1920

Folder 96: “John” Correspondence, 1909-1921

Folder 97: A. C. Johnson

Correspondence, 1904-1921, with Alexander C. Johnson, general agent for the Chicago and Northwestern Railway Company.

Folder 98: Royal C. Johnson

Correspondence, 1913-1925, concerning clerk of court fees, government publications, prohibition, personal news, and other topics. Johnson was at one time Attorney General of South Dakota and later was a member of the U.S. House of Representatives.

Folder 99: Willis E. Johnson

Correspondence, 1913-1923, concerning various topics. Johnson was at different times president of the North Dakota State Normal and Industrial School, and president of the South Dakota Northern Normal and Industrial School.

Folder 100: John L. Jolley

Correspondence, 1903-1916, concerning various topics. The bulk of the correspondence is in regard to Jolley's proposed talk to the Historical Society in 1913.

Folder 101: "Jones" to "Jor" Correspondence, 1904-1921

Folder 102: "Ka" to "Ke" Correspondence, 1903-1919

Folder 103: Robert Floyd Kerr

Correspondence, 1902-1917, on various topics.

Folder 104: "Ki" Correspondence, 1904-1921

Folder 105: Gen. Charles King

Correspondence, 1912-1919, mainly concerning Gen. Crook's campaign of 1876 and the location of the Slim Buttes battlefield.

Folder 106: George W. Kingsbury

Correspondence, 1904-1919, concerning the Dakota Cavalry, Dakota Territory, Kingsbury's history of the territory, and other topics. Included is a roster of Company B, Dakota Cavalry.

Folder 107: A. B. Kittredge

Correspondence, 1904-1910, on various topics.

Folder 108: "Kl" to "Ky" Correspondence, 1906-1921

Folder 109: "La" Correspondence, 1906-1921

Box 03362 A - "La" to "McC"

Folder 110: La Verendrye

Correspondence, 1913-1941, concerning the La Verendrye explorations, lead plate, and the site of the plate's location. The bulk of the correspondence is from 1913, when the plate was found, and from 1923, when an attempt was made in Congress to have the site marked by the federal government.

Folder 111: La Verendrye

Correspondence and other papers, 1913-1917, concerning the ownership of the La Verendrye plate.

Folder 112: La Verendrye

Miscellaneous leaflets, notes, tax receipts, maps, speeches, and other papers, including Dr. Tillberg's 1941 report to the Historic Site Committee of the Department of the Interior.

Folder 113: Lake Shetak

Correspondence, 1903-1915, concerning the rescue of the Lake Shetak captives.

Folder 114: Agnes C. Laut

Correspondence, 1902-1920, concerning the La Verendryes, and the writings of both Miss Laut and Robinson.

Folder 115: Ernest Orlando Lawrence

Correspondence, 1938, giving biographical information concerning one of America's most noted nuclear scientists.

Folder 116: "Le" Correspondence, 1908-1921

Folder 117: "Li" Correspondence, 1906-1921

Folder 118: "Lo" Correspondence, 1906-1921

Folder 119: Henry L. Loucks

Correspondence, 1898-1919, mostly concerning Loucks's political activities. He was a prominent reformist politician, and one-time president of the National Farmers Alliance and Industrial Union.

Folder 120: "Lu" to "Ly" Correspondence, 1902-1921

Folder 121: Willard C. Lusk

Correspondence, 1903-1925, on various topics. Most of the letters are of a personal nature.

Folder 122: "McA" to "McG" Correspondence, 1911-1921

Folder 123: Pattison F. McClure

Correspondence, 1905-1922, on various topics, including the spelling of Dupree (the town), the unveiling of a portrait of Bishop Hare, and McClure's presidency of the Historical Society.

Folder 124: A. C. McClurg

Correspondence, 1904-1921, mainly concerning book orders.

Box 03362 B - "McD" to "Min"

Folder 125: Robert E. McDowell

Correspondence, 1901-1908, mainly concerning McDowell's efforts to obtain copies of various publications for the Historical Society. McDowell was an aid to the U.S. Senator Robert J. Gamble.

Folder 126: Valentine T. McGillycuddy

Correspondence, 1920-1924, concerning McGillycuddy's frontier experiences as an army physician and Indian agent.

Folder 127: "McI" to "McV" Correspondence, 1907-1919

Folder 128: C. N. McIlvaine

Correspondence, 1913-1915, with the secretary of the state board of agriculture.

Folder 129: C. J. McLeod

Correspondence, 1905-1915, mainly concerning printing various items for the Department of History. McLeod owned the News Printing Company in Aberdeen.

Folder 130: William Henry McMaster

Correspondence, 1912-1925, mainly concerning requests for information by McMaster.

Folder 131: "Ma" to "Man" Correspondence, 1912-1920

Folder 132: Josie Mansfield

Correspondence, 1937, concerning Helen Josephine Mansfield Reade, mistress of Jim Fisk.

Folder 133: "Mar" to "May" Correspondence, 1902-1920

Folder 134: Constant R. Marks

Correspondence, 1907-1908 and 1920, on various topics. Several letters deal with an autobiographical sketch written by Louis D. Letellier about his pioneer experiences in Dakota Territory.

Folder 135: “Mea” to “Mey” Correspondence, 1907-1920

Folder 136: Leonard Charles Mead

Correspondence, 1904-1920, concerning the South Dakota State Hospital at Yankton, of which Mead was superintendent. Much of the correspondence is also personal.

Folder 137: Arthur Calvin Mellette

Correspondence with various persons, 1889, concerning Mellette being chosen as governor, plus several letters from Mellette, 1889-1892, concerning politics and personal matters.

Folder 138: Arthur Calvin Mellette

Correspondence, 1901-1920, with members of Mellette’s family, and with others, concerning the governor’s papers and effects, and regarding a memorial statue.

Folder 139: “Mic” to “Min” Correspondence, 1905-1921

Folder 140: Military Academy

Correspondence, 1910, concerning Robinson’s attempt to establish a military academy in Pierre.

Folder 141: Gen. Anson Mills

Correspondence, 1914 and 1918, concerning the correct location of the Slim Buttes battlefield.

Folder 142: Minnesota Historical Society

Correspondence, 1899-1924, on various topics. Warren Upham and Solon J. Buck were superintendents of the Minnesota Historical Society during this period.

Box 03363 A - “Mis” to “Na”

Folder 143: Mississippi Valley Historical Association

Correspondence, 1910-1915, mainly concerning membership and committee assignments.

Folder 144: Missouri Historical Society

Correspondence, 1904-1919, concerning exchange of publications and other topics.

Folder 145: Mitchell, South Dakota

Correspondence, 1911-1915, mainly with the Mitchell Commercial Club and the Mitchell Publishing Company.

Folder 146: “Moll” Correspondence, 1903-1921

Folder 147: Mrs. I. A. Morrow

Correspondence, 1923, concerning the possible purchase of the Stanley J. Morrow photograph collection.

Folder 148: Mounds

Correspondence, 1911, seeking information on mounds in South Dakota.

Folder 149: Mount Rushmore, 1923-1925

Correspondence, 1923-1925, concerning the proposed giant sculpture in the Black Hills. Much of the correspondence is with Gutzon Borglum.

Folder 150: Mount Rushmore, 1926-1927

Correspondence, 1926-1927, concerning the Mount Rushmore project. Much of the correspondence is with Herbert Myrick, who was a member of the advisory committee of the Mount Harney Memorial Association.

Folder 151: Mount Rushmore, 1928-1946

Correspondence, 1928-1946, with Gutzon Borglum, the Meyer Engraving Company, and others concerning the Mount Rushmore project.

Folder 152: Mount Rushmore Miscellaneous

Contracts, agreements, financial statements, and other papers, including a copy of Gutzon Borglum’s first proposal for a sculpture in the Black Hills. Also includes a metal cut of Robinson’s concept of a Washington-Lincoln statue in the Needles.

Folder 153: “Mull” to “My” Correspondence, 1908-1921

Folder 154: Mathew W. Murphy

Correspondence, 1907-1921, mostly of a personal nature.

Folder 155: “Na” Correspondence, 1909-1921

Folder 156: George Williston Nash

Correspondence, 1903-1909, with G. W. Nash, a prominent South Dakota educator and close personal friend of Robinson.

Box 03363 B - “Na” to “Sc”

Folder 157: George Williston Nash

Correspondence, 1911-1923, on various topics.

Folder 158: Nebraska Historical Society

Correspondence, 1910-1914, on various topics.

Folder 159: John Gneisenau Neihardt

Correspondence, 1907-1921, mostly concerning Neihardt’s poetry. Much of the correspondence also concerns Mrs. Nona Martinson Neihardt’s bid to create the sculpture for the new South Dakota State Capitol.

Folder 160: Newberry Library

Correspondence, 1919-1920, concerning Robinson’s desire to become librarian at the Chicago library.

Folder 161: Peter Norbeck, 1916-1924

Correspondence, 1916-1924, most of which dates from Norbeck’s time in the U.S. Senate. Topics of major importance are politics, prohibition, Missouri River bridges, Mount Rushmore, and an automobile trip from Pierre to Rapid City in 1905.

Folder 162: Peter Norbeck, 1925-1927, 1935

Correspondence, 1925-1927, mainly concerning the Mount Rushmore project. Other letters discuss politics, the Custer State Park, governors William H. McMaster and Carl Gunderson, an artesian well at Fort Randall, and biographical information on the Norbeck family.

Folder 163: Joseph William Parmley

Correspondence, 1906-1925, on various topics.

Folder 164: Rain-in-the-Face

Correspondence with D. F. Barry, 1921, and a magazine article concerning Rain-in-the-Face and his role in the Battle of the Little Bighorn.

Folder 165: Riggs Family

Correspondence, 1902-1946, with Thomas Lawrence Riggs, Louisa Irvine Riggs, Alfred Longley Riggs, and Theodore Foster Riggs.

Folder 166: Robinson Family

Correspondence, 1928-1946, among members of Robinson's family. Included are letters from Doane's brothers Homer and George, his son Harry A., his daughter-in-law Corinne, and his grandchildren Suzanne and Polly.

Folder 167: Dr. Delorme Wilson Robinson

Correspondence, 1898-1902, concerning an article in the Monthly South Dakotan in 1898, and the footnotes for an article in South Dakota Historical Collections. Other letters written to Dr. Robinson are also included.

Folder 168: Harry A. Robinson

Correspondence, 1945-1946, mainly concerning family news.

Folder 169: Will Grow Robinson

Correspondence, 1945, concerning family news, the State Historical Society, World War II, and South Dakota.

Folder 170: "Sa" Correspondence, 1910-1921

Folder 171: Sacagawea

Correspondence and other papers, 1905 and 1922-1925, concerning the life of Sacagawea, with particular emphasis on the question of her death date and the spelling of her name.

Folder 172: "Sc" Correspondence, 1902-1921

Box 03364 A - "Sc" to "St"

Folder 173: Schools and Education

Correspondence and other papers, 1924, concerning the role of the school in teaching "intelligent goodness."

Folder 174: Mark D. Scott

Correspondence, 1915, concerning the state census.

Folder 175: "Se" Correspondence, 1912-1921

Folder 176: "Sh" Correspondence, 1907-1920

Folder 177: "Si" Correspondence, 1905-1921

Folder 178: Sitting Bull Grave

Correspondence, 1908-1909, concerning the removal of the remains of Sitting Bull, Gall, and Rain-in-the-Face from Fort Yates to Sitting Bull's old home on the Standing Rock Indian Reservation in South Dakota.

Folder 179: "Sk" to "Sl" Correspondence, 1912-1920

Folder 180: E. D. Smith

Correspondence, 1909-1912, mainly concerning the papers of Jedidiah Strong Smith, and the possible publication of a biography of him.

Folder 181: O. H. Smith

Correspondence, 1911-1913, concerning Robinson's ranch on the Little Bend of the Missouri River.

Folder 182: Otterbein O. Smith

Correspondence, 1911-1914, mostly concerning Smith's coming to Pierre as pastor of the Congregational Church.

Folder 183: Smith Correspondence, 1905-1922

Folder 184: Smithsonian Institution

Correspondence, 1906-1919, mainly concerning American Indians and geological specimens.

Folder 185: South Dakota Educational Association

Correspondence, 1906, concerning the annual meeting of the South Dakota Educational Association for 1907.

Folder 186: South Dakota History

Correspondence, 1902-1905, with B. F. Bowen, publisher, concerning the publication of Robinson's book.

Folder 187: South Dakota State College

Correspondence, 1906-1914, with various college officials at Brookings.

Folder 188: "Sn" to "St" Correspondence, 1902-1921

Folder 189: W. H. Stennett

Correspondence, 1906-1914, much of which concerns the origin of town names along the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad.

Folder 190: Thomas Sterling

Correspondence, 1907-1921, concerning politics, Missouri River development, the League of Nations, World War I, labor legislation, a soldiers' bonus, and other topics.

Box 03364 B - "St" to "U"

Folder 191: "Stev" to "Stu" Correspondence, 1904-1921

Folder 192: "Su" Correspondence, 1908-1916

Folder 193: William L. Sublette

Correspondence, 1921-1923, concerning William L. Sublette and his father-in-law, William Whitley. Detailed genealogical information for both men is included.

Folder 194: Benjamin Sulte

Correspondence, 1914-1915, concerning early French and Canadian fur traders, particularly the La Verendryes. Also included are approximately 90 pages of Sulte's notes on the La Verendryes and other fur traders.

Folder 195: "Sw" Correspondence, 1911-1921

Folder 196: George D. Swaine

Correspondence, 1913, concerning Swaine's article on Gen. Henry H. Sibley.

Folder 197: "Tall" Correspondence, 1907-1920

Folder 198: Wright Tarbell

Correspondence, 1912-1922, concerning the Arthur C. Mellette memorial in Watertown and other topics.

Folder 199: Franklin Taylor

Correspondence, 1906 and 1912, on various topics.

Folder 200: "Te" to "Th" Correspondence, 1904-1921

Folder 201: W. H. Thrall

Correspondence, 1912-1920, mainly concerning the Congregational Church in South Dakota.

Folder 202: Reuben Gold Thwaites

Correspondence, 1913, on various topics.

Folder 203: "Ti" Correspondence, 1914-1921

Folder 204: “To” Correspondence, 1903-1921

Folder 205: Torch Press

Correspondence, 1913-1920, mainly concerning book orders.

Folder 206: “Tr” Correspondence, 1902-1921

Folder 207: “Tu” to “Ty” Correspondence, 1906-1921

Folder 208: “U” Correspondence, 1914-1921

Folder 209: U.S.S. South Dakota

Correspondence, 1901, concerning the possibility of the state of South Dakota presenting a figurehead to its new namesake armored cruiser.

Box 03365 A - “U” to “Wi”

Folder 210: United States Departments

Correspondence, 1915-1920, with personnel from the Departments of Agriculture, Commerce, Interior and War.

Folder 211: “Va” Correspondence, 1908-1921

Folder 212: Abraham Lincoln [Lewis?] Van Osdel

Correspondence, 1903-1917, mainly concerning Van Osdel’s early life in Dakota.

Folder 213: “Ve” Correspondence, 1908-1922

Folder 214: “Vi” to “Vo” Correspondence, 1908-1922

Folder 215: “Wag” to “Wal” Correspondence, 1905-1921

Folder 216: War Department

Correspondence, 1904-1917, with officials of the War Department and members of the Library War Council of the American Library Association.

Folder 217: “War” to “Way” Correspondence, 1909-1921

Folder 218: Henry Kimball Warren

Correspondence, 1906-1922, mainly concerning Yankton College, of which Warren was president, and Robinson a trustee.

Folder 219: “We” Correspondence, 1909-1921

Folder 220: “Wh” Correspondence, 1909-1915

Folder 221: Charles Sumner Whiting

Correspondence with Judge Whiting, 1908, concerning a proposed lecture, and with prominent people supporting Whiting's candidacy for the federal district judgeship (1910-1911).

Folder 222: "Wi" Correspondence, 1901-1921

Box 03365 B - "Wi" to "Z"

Folder 223: G. W. Wilkinson

Correspondence, 1922-1923, concerning Christianity and its relationship to Judaism.

Folder 224: John B. Williamson

Correspondence, 1917-1946, concerning Fort Randall, the Yankton Indians, Charles F. Picotte, Lake Andes, Pierre Dorion Jr., and other topics. Also included is an account of early Fort LaFramboise history and the rescue of the Lake Shetak captives, written by Charles Pierre Barbier.

Folder 225: John P. Williamson

Correspondence, 1902-1909, concerning the Sioux Indians. Specific topics include the Sioux penal code and social organization, the family of Robert Dickson, Red Thunder, tribal divisions, geographic location of tribes, Struck-by-the-Ree, and the Dakota language.

Folder 226: "Wo" to "Wy" Correspondence, 1906-1920

Folder 227: "Y" Correspondence, 1912-1920

Folder 228: "Z" Correspondence, 1910-1915

Folder 229: Miscellaneous Correspondence

Letters found among Robinson's papers, though they are not written by or addressed to him. Included are letters written by Admiral George Dewey, Frederick T. Wilson, John R. Brennan, Newton D. Baker, and others.