Memorial Day holiday, summer hours announced for Cultural Heritage Center

PIERRE, S.D. – The museum in the South Dakota Cultural Heritage Center in Pierre is open Monday, May 27, for the Memorial Day holiday from 1-4:30 p.m. CDT.

All other offices of the South Dakota State Historical Society in the Cultural Heritage Center, including the State Archives, are closed on Monday.

The museum is open this Saturday from 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m., and Sunday from 1-4:30 p.m.

Starting Tuesday, May 28, and running through Labor Day in September, the museum will be open extended hours – Monday-Saturday from 9 a.m.-6:30 p.m. and Sundays and holidays from 1-4:30 p.m.

“We hope people take advantage of the extra hours and visit the museum in the Cultural Heritage Center,” said Jay D. Vogt, director of the South Dakota State Historical Society. “We’re sure it will be a memorable experience for people of all ages.”

The newest exhibit in the museum, “Furniture: The Fancy & The Functional,” is about furniture found in the home, and how furniture use and design has been influenced by the way the function of each room in the house has evolved over time.

Museum admission is free for children 17-and-younger; there is a small fee for adults ages 18-and-older.

Public hours for the archives research room remain unchanged -- 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Monday-Friday and the first Saturday of each month.
