

Governor Charles H. Sheldon
Years in Office: 1893-1897

Birth: September 12, 1840; Lamoille County, Vermont
Death: October 20, 1898; Deadwood, South Dakota

Governor Charles H. Sheldon argued for thrift in funding public institutions, and dealt with financial problems as tax collections did not meet the States' needs. The defalcation of the state treasurer necessitated straightening out the states' finances during his second term.
