

Governor William John Bulow
Years in Office: 1927-1931

Birth: January 13, 1869; Moscow, Ohio
Death: February 26, 1960; Washington, DC

Governor Bulow was a state Senator during the 1899 session. He started his term as governor by vetoing the appropriations bill in 1927. Major issues during his governorship included the state revenue and budget, and tax-financed farm relief. He also served as a United States Senator from 1932 to 1942. Following his term as governor, he later worked with a law firm in Washington D.C.
