Contest Entry Form, Release and Waiver

The South Dakota State Archives is sponsoring the I Found It In The Archives essay and video contest to show how the items and information found in the nation's archives touch peoples' lives. We're seeking entrants who have found something special in our collections – records, documents, photos, recordings, a meaningful item or treasure. If it has meaning to you, it has meaning to us and is a wonderful basis for your entry.

Between now and the close of business on February 4, 2011, we ask that you submit either:

A 400-word essay describing your quest for information and explaining why finding it has made a difference for you, along with a color photograph of you, or

A video of no more than 2 minutes in which you describe your quest for information and explain why finding it has made a difference for you.

This entry form (which is downloadable) must accompany your entry and can be submitted along with the essay or video as an attachment to your email. (You may also drop off your entry and this form at our offices at 900 Governors Dr., Pierre, SD 57501.)

There will be one finalist in this competition and the winner will receive a one year membership to the South Dakota State Historical Society plus a coupon for one hour of research services.

RULES

You may submit only one entry. Submitting more than one entry will disqualify you.

You may submit your entry by email or by dropping it off at our offices at 900 Governors Dr., Pierre, SD 57501.

You must not currently be employed or previously have been employed by the South Dakota State Historical Society – whether as employee or contractor – or related to a member of the same household as a South Dakota State Historical Society employee or contractor.

You must be 18 years of age or older at the date of entry.

You must be a legal resident of the United States.

Your entry becomes the property of the South Dakota State Archives. We reserve the right to post your essay and photograph or video online. Materials will not be returned.

The winners of the competition will be notified on February 18, 2011.
