

Memorandum

TO: Potential Deadwood Fund Applicants

FROM: Benjamin F. Jones, Interim State Historic Preservation

RE: Officer Deadwood Fund packet

Please find enclosed an application, instructions, and criteria packet for the South Dakota State Historical Society's Deadwood Fund program. There are two opportunities to apply for funding annually. The first deadline is February 1 and the second is October 1. Projects may not start until after the award is granted. Under this historic preservation program, the grants ranging from $1,000 to $25,000 will be awarded for projects that retain, restore, or rehabilitate historic buildings, structures, and archaeological sites in South Dakota for residential, commercial, or public purposes. The Deadwood Fund is a competitive grant program.

The Deadwood Fund program is funded by a portion of the gambling revenue generated in Deadwood, SD. By sharing the Deadwood historic preservation monies, the Deadwood Fund program enables applicants from throughout the state to extend their financial resources to preserve important pieces of South Dakota history.

All projects must meet The Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation. The standards for restoration and rehabilitation are summarized in the enclosed packet. These standards are neither technical nor prescriptive; instead they promote responsible preservation practices that help protect our nation's irreplaceable cultural resources.

The staff of the State Historic Preservation Office, a program of the South Dakota State Historical Society, is ready to assist applicants interpret the criteria and complete the application. To be considered, applications must be postmarked no later than February 1 or October 1 annually. If you have any questions, feel free to contact our office.

Thank you for your interest in historic preservation and the Deadwood Fund program.

General Information

- The South Dakota State Historical Society is an office within the Department of Education. The mission of the Society is to promote, nurture and sustain the historical and cultural heritage of South Dakota by collecting, preserving, researching, and interpreting evidence of the state's irreplaceable past and making it available for the life-long education, enrichment of present and future generations.
- The State Historic Preservation Office (SHPO) is a unit of the Society which manages the National Register of Historic Places program of the National Park Service in South Dakota. The program relates historic preservation to economic, social and educational state objectives; it surveys, inventories and registers historic properties; and it promotes public awareness and provides technical assistance on their preservation.
- The Deadwood Fund is created out of gaming proceeds from the City of Deadwood. The purpose of the fund is to make loans and grants to purchase, restore, or develop historic South Dakota properties for residential, commercial, or public purposes.
- Individuals, organizations, and public agencies sponsoring projects to retain, restore or rehabilitate historic buildings, structures or sites by returning them to a state of utility, through repair or alteration, which makes possible an efficient contemporary use while preserving those portions and features of the properties which are significant to their historic, architectural, and cultural values and meeting the grant criteria are eligible to apply for a Deadwood Fund grant.

In all instances, the burden of proving that funds will support work in historic preservation lies with the applicant. Professional guidance by someone skilled in the retention, rehabilitation, and restoration of historic properties may be needed to successfully plan, implement, and complete a project. Evaluation criteria will be used as guidelines to rank each project. A project meeting all eligibility criteria does not guarantee that it will receive a grant award.

- A Deadwood Fund grant may be considered taxable income. In June 1997, the IRS began examinations of preservation grants in Colorado, and it claims that those grants are taxable income.
- The applicant is encouraged to be a member of the South Dakota State Historical Society. See membership information at the end of the application packet.

Grant Information

- Grants will be for projects beginning approximately May 1 (following the February deadline) or January 1 (following the October deadline). Projects may not start until after notification of the grant award is received.
- Grants will generally be awarded in amounts ranging from $1,000 to $25,000.
- Where determined that an application merits support only in part or at a reduced level, the offer will be less than the amount requested. Larger grant awards may be considered in extreme circumstances.
- Generally, the grant amount requires a dollar-for-dollar match from nonfederal and non-state sources. The availability of matching funds must be provided with the application. Nonprofit organizations according to state law may receive grants without match; however, match is highly encouraged.
- Payment of the grant award will be made on a reimbursement basis upon receipt of a paid invoice at the completion of the work. The matching funds must be demonstrated at the time of payments. The State Historic Preservation Office staff reserves the right to inspect completed work before payment.
- Projects should demonstrate substantial public historic preservation benefits. The fund will not pay for administrative or operating costs. The following categorical exclusions will not generally be funded with Deadwood Funds: security systems, general decorative arts and furnishings, general building or site maintenance, new construction or non-historic site improvements, and work performed only to meet the Americans with Disabilities Act and building codes.

Eligibility Criteria

1. The property must be listed in or eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places. If not listed, property owner agrees in writing to begin the listing process within one year.
2. The project must meet The Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation (36 CFR 67), attached at the end of this application packet.
3. The applicant must demonstrate that funds are available to match the grant, and the property will have an on-going use at the completion of the project for residential, commercial, or public purposes.
4. The applicant must provide assurances of the ability to maintain the property well into the future.
5. The applicant must sign an eight-year restrictive covenant running with the property, which states that the property shall be maintained in a manner that preserves the property's historic integrity. All work performed on the property within the covenant period must meet The Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation.
6. A sign provided by the South Dakota State Historical Society must be posted at the project site. The sign will state that the project has been funded in part by the State Historical Society through the Deadwood Fund and must remain posted for the duration of the project. All publicity material should include similar recognition.

Evaluation Criteria

The Deadwood Fund grant program provides an opportunity to leverage financial resources for the acquisition, retention, restoration or rehabilitation of historic buildings, structures and sites. Awards in this program are made only when there is evident need for additional funds to complete a critical project and to effect significant improvement or prevent losses of historic properties. The applicant must demonstrate a financial investment in the project, the ability to meet the financial obligation, and a commitment to its completion.

Projects will be ranked for priority based on the following criteria:

1. The property is significant to South Dakota history and the project substantially benefits historic preservation and serves as a major public demonstration of historic preservation.
2. The historic building, structure or site is of public prominence or importance and endangered or threatened.
3. The entire project meets the Secretary of the Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation, see page g of the application packet.
4. The property is associated with minority or ethnic groups, particularly American Indians.
5. The property is currently listed on the National Register of Historic Places.
6. The project has a preservation plan in place and documented community support.

7. The property receives appropriate on-going maintenance, or its present state of disrepair is not the result of neglect by the current owner.
8. The applicant documents more than the required dollar-for-dollar match; nonprofit organizations providing match.
9. The application is clear, concise, complete, and includes a detailed budget.
10. A historic preservation professional assisted in developing or reviewed the project, the general contractor and subcontractors are professionally qualified and preservation sensitive, and if the work is being completed by someone other than a licensed contractor, the individual or company is capable of performing the prescribed work.
11. The project has not previously received funding through this program.

Description of Review Process

Applications are accepted any time, but all eligible applications must be postmarked no later than February 1 or October 1 each year to be considered in the current year cycle. An applicant must submit an application for each deadline or a letter requesting resubmittal. Applications will not be automatically forwarded to the next application deadline.

Each application is assigned to a historic preservation specialist, usually based on the geographic location of the project. The specialist reviews the application for completeness and to ensure that the project is eligible for consideration. If the specialist requires additional information to process the application, he or she will contact the applicant.

An in-house review panel evaluates each application/project based on the criteria listed above. The preservation staff makes formal recommendations to the South Dakota State Historical Society Board of Trustees and other key personnel. The Board makes a final determination on applications.

The State Historic Preservation Officer will notify each applicant about the disposition of the awards within 90 days of the final review by the Board of Trustees.

HISTORIC MASONRY REPAIR

MORTAR SPECIFICATIONS

All new mortar joints should match the historic joints in strength, color, texture, size, shape, tooling detail and other visual qualities.

Beware Of Portland Cement.

It is essential that the strength of the new mortar is compatible with the historic masonry. If the new mortar contains a high Portland-cement content, it will not be flexible enough to allow the soft historic masonry to expand and contract with climactic changes. The softer masonry will become damaged over time as it cracks between the mortar joints.

The recommended mortar composition is approximately 2.5 parts aggregate and 1 part hydrated, or “slacked” lime. Add just enough water to create a workable mortar mix. If the workability of the composition is extremely poor, a maximum of 20% Portland cement may be added to the mix. Since the aggregate is a blend of sand which contains both fine and coarse particles, the blend of particles sizes in the new mortar should closely match the historic composition. Keep in mind that the larger particles will move to the outer surface of the wall to protect the mortar against erosion.

The use of locally found aggregates usually provides the best match to historic mortar, since early craftsmen generally created mixes from readily available sands found close to the construction site. Although it is preferable to match the color of the historic mortar through the selected aggregate blend, it is acceptable to introduce artificial coloring agents in small quantities.

Power Tools

The use of power tools to remove deteriorated mortar is not explicitly prohibited, but it is strongly discouraged. The most gentle techniques are always preferable; if the mortar is so sound that power tools are required to remove it, the mortar probably sound enough to be left alone. Raking out deteriorated mortar by hand avoids damage to the surrounding masonry components. Several tax incentive projects have been denied at the national level because of the inappropriate use of power tools.

How Much Water?

Water will evaporate as the mortar dries, so mortar which requires less water will be stronger and more durable than mortar with a high water content. A simple test to determine the appropriate blend of aggregate particle sizes is to place samples into three clear glass jars. The first jar should contain only sand. The second jar should contain sand and a small amount of pebbles. The third jar should be half sand and half pebbles. The total amount of aggregate in each container should be the same. Slowly pour water into each jar, measuring the amount of water needed to just cover the aggregate. The jar that requires the least amount of water to cover the aggregate will create the most suitable mortar blend.

PHOTOGRAPHIC DOCUMENTATION GUIDELINES

In order for the Historic Preservation Program staff to adequately evaluate whether rehabilitation and restoration work performed meets the Secretary of the Interior's Standards, good, clear, and comprehensive photographic documentation must accompany the grant application. Digital photos submitted on a CD-R or flash drive are preferred.

At a minimum the following photographs should be submitted:

1. Several photographs of the site and setting of the historic property. This should include photos taken close up, showing the individual property site, and from a distance, showing the street setting of the property.
2. At least one photograph of all existing elevations, showing the entire elevation. This includes all structures affected by the proposed project, such as carriage houses and outbuildings. Elevations that are partially blocked by an adjacent building or trees may require several photographs taken from different angles to completely document the elevation.
3. Detailed close-up photographs are needed of specific architectural features affected by the project, such as windows, doors, balustrades, trim, etc. Submitting several representative photos of multiple features such as windows is acceptable provided they adequately represent the element throughout the structure.
4. Photographs of interior spaces should be taken with a wide-angle lens from diagonally opposite corners of the room. This includes all interior spaces affected by the project. If like spaces or rooms exist then submitting several representative photographs is acceptable.

All photographs (digital and printed) should be labeled with the property name and orientation description. Examples: JonesBakery_west wall, JonesBakery_lobbylookingwest, JonesBakery_eastbasementwall, JonesBakery_ceilinginlobby, JonesBakery_deterioratingmortar, JonesBakery_brokenwindowmuntinsouthside, JonesBakery_rooflookingnorth, etc.

Historic Preservation Regions

In order to provide the best possible service to the public, the three historic preservation specialists will each be responsible for the historic preservation matters in a specific geographic area of the state. Questions concerning the national or state registers, certified local governments, historical markers, and grant assistance should be directed to the specialist assigned to the appropriate area. If the specialist for your area is unavailable, feel free to visit with one of the other historic preservation staff members.

GUIDE TO THE NATIONAL REGISTER CRITERIA FOR EVALUATION

The National Register of Historic Places Criteria are designed to determine and evaluate the significance of historic resources within the proper historic context. There are four main categories which are listed below, followed by a brief description. Please keep in mind that while a single property must qualify under at least one category, it may be eligible under more than one criterion.

CRITERIA:

The quality of significance in American history, architecture, archaeology, and culture is present in districts, sites, buildings, structures, and objects that possess integrity of location, design, setting, material, workmanship, feeling, and association, and :

- A That are associated with events that have made a significant contribution to the broad patterns of our history; or
- B That are associated with the lives of persons significant in our past; or
- C That embody the distinctive characteristics of a type, period, or method of construction; or that represent a significant and distinguishable entity whose components may lack individual distinction; or
- D That have yielded, or may be likely to yield, information important in prehistory or history.

CRITERIA CONSIDERATIONS:

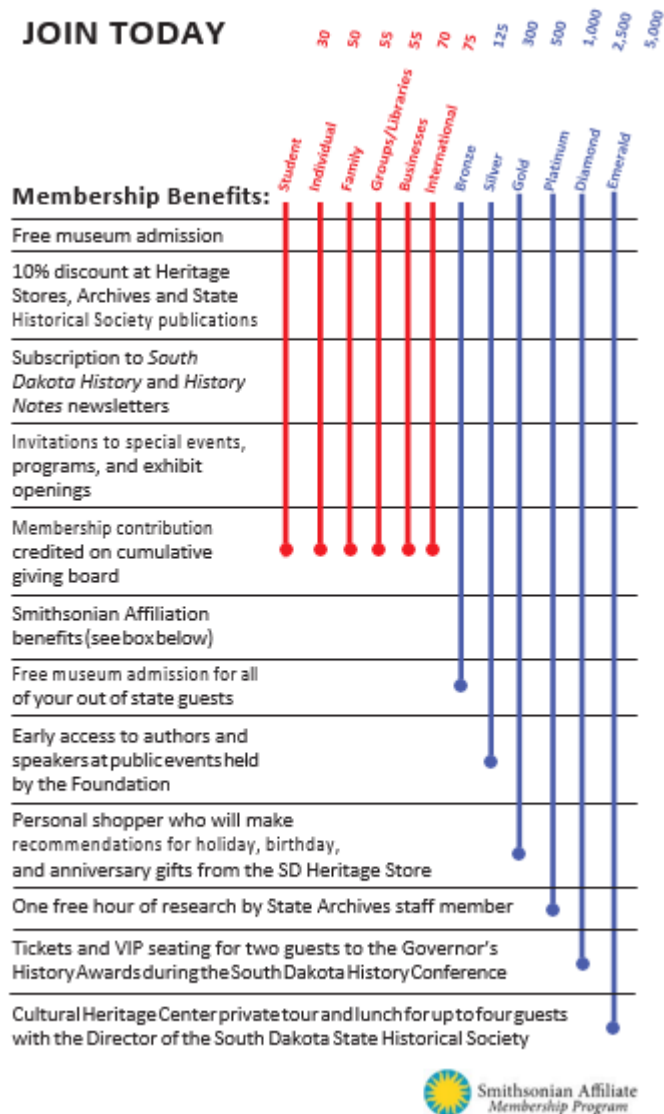

There are seven Criteria Considerations listed on the National Register Nomination Form which are applicable to cemeteries, birthplaces, graves of historical figures, properties owned by religious institutions or used for religious purposes, structures that have been moved from their original locations, reconstructed historic buildings, properties primarily commemorative in nature, and properties that have achieved significance in the last fifty years. Typically, the types of properties listed above would not be considered for the National Register but may qualify under one of the criteria considerations. If your property is one of the above, please fill out the preliminary assessment form but attach a brief description of the property type and explain its significance.

Your Membership Investment at Work!

Your membership donation is invested in the work performed by the staff of the South Dakota State Historical Society and South Dakota Historical Society Foundation. Award-winning books and exhibits continue to draw national and international attention to society projects. Public programming and social media posts provide educational opportunities for people of all ages.

The state historical society is also home to amazing collections. The archives maintains a publicly accessible link to a treasure trove of information through the South Dakota Digital Archives located at history.sd.gov/Archives. Rotating exhibits at the museum tell the story of South Dakota.

Leading the preservation effort are the State Historic Preservation Office and the Archaeological Research Center, which help citizens and communities across the state plan their preservation activities. While supporting the work of the State Historical Society, the Foundation also operates Heritage Stores in the Cultural Heritage Center and Capitol.
